Domestic Flights in Nepal: Everything You Need to Know

Nepal has over 40 domestic airports, and flying is often the only practical way to reach remote trekking destinations like Lukla (for Everest Base Camp), Jomsom (for Mustang), or Simikot (for Upper Humla).

Why Book Domestic Flights on Hamro Safar?

International booking engines like Skyscanner or Google Flights often do not list Nepal domestic routes — especially mountain airstrips. Hamro Safar covers all routes operated by:

- Buddha Air
- Yeti Airlines
- Shree Airlines
- Saurya Airlines
- Tara Air (mountain routes)

Popular Domestic Routes

Route	Approx. Duration	Why You Need It
Kathmandu → Pokhara	25 minutes	Gateway to Annapurna treks
Kathmandu → Lukla	35 minutes	Start of Everest Base Camp trek
Kathmandu → Biratnagar	40 minutes	Eastern Nepal gateway
Kathmandu → Bhairahawa	30 minutes	Lumbini, Buddha's birthplace
Pokhara → Jomsom	20 minutes	Upper Mustang treks

Pro tip: Book Kathmandu–Lukla flights at least 4–6 weeks ahead during peak season (March–May and October–November). Seats sell out fast and prices rise sharply closer to the date.

Mountain Flights: See Everest Without the Trek

Not everyone can spend 14 days trekking to Everest Base Camp — but everyone can see Mount Everest. Nepal's famous mountain flights offer breathtaking close-up views of the Himalayas from the comfort of a small aircraft, typically departing from Kathmandu early in the morning.

You'll fly within close proximity of:

- Mount Everest (8,849m) — the world's highest peak
- Lhotse (8,516m)
- Makalu (8,485m)
- Cho Oyu (8,188m)
- Kangchenjunga (8,586m)

The full experience lasts about an hour. Every passenger gets a window seat.

Helicopter Rides in Nepal: The Premium Nepal Experience

For those who want to go further — into the mountains, not just near them — Nepal's helicopter services offer an unmatched experience. Whether it's an Everest Base Camp helicopter tour, an Annapurna Base Camp heli ride, or a scenic Himalayan flight, these experiences are now surprisingly accessible.

Popular Helicopter Routes

- Everest Base Camp Helicopter Tour — Fly to 5,364m, walk on EBC, return same day
- Annapurna Base Camp Helicopter — Land at 4,130m with panoramic Himalayan views
- Muktinath Helicopter — Sacred religious site + stunning scenery
- Gosaikunda Helicopter — Holy lake at 4,380m altitude
- Chandragiri/Nagarkot Scenic — Day trip from Kathmandu

Why Book Helicopters Through Hamro Safar?
